

MAY 2022 NEWSLETTER

Building Better Athletes...

New Website:

- We have successfully migrated from our old hometeamsonline website to our new website <https://factorybasketball.com>
- Allows us to customize our website to better serve our players and families.
- Google calendars now imbedded in the Calendar for the Factory Basketball Organization (Practices and events) as well as the Factory Facility Calendar.
- Team pages for each team in the Organization complete with coaches contact info and player photos & Bios for college coaches to easily access.

Uniform Update:

- We were very unhappy with our previous uniform supplier and had to sever our relationship with them and start from scratch with new suppliers.
- Received our 1st order and the remainder of our uniforms are in production now. I have received production photos. They look great!
- Purchased 20 extra uniforms as part of the 2nd order so that we have plenty of extras going forward for new players while their uniforms are on order.

Player fee balances are due:

We took deposits when players were offered roster spots. We now need to collect final balances this week so we can pay for our remaining events, etc.

Payments: Checks payable to Factory Basketball - CashApp to $FactoryBBall, or pay in person with Cash or Credit Card (Credit Cards add 2%).

Spring Drip Order:

- Order Factory T-shirts, Hoodies and more
- Our new Factory Player Bags will be $55. Bag orders due this week.

New Classes at the Factory:

- Next Level Shooting with Coach Tone – Available most nights of the week $25
- BIGs Class – Post Moves, Pivot Foot Work, Catching, Finishing. $25

Launch of The Hours Club:

- Kids need to be in the gym regularly to see real improvement
- We are tracking hours in our gym, and will be awarding T-shirts to athletes at 100, 150 and 200 hours this Spring/Summer.
